Distinguished Speaker

Alisa Amarosa Wood '08

Alisa Amarosa Wood (New York) joined Kohlberg Kravis Roberts & Co. (KKR) in 2003 and is a Partner of the Firm. She is the Co-CEO of KKR's democratized private equity business. Ms. Wood also leads the Global Private Markets and Real Assets Strategies Group, looking after key product areas including private equity, infrastructure, energy real assets, impact, growth equity, and customized products.

Alisa sits on a number of the Firm's management and leadership committees including their Firm's Risk & Operating Committee, the New Business Investment Committee, the Democratized Private Equity Investment Committee, the ESG Committee and the Geopolitical Governance Committee. She has been actively involved in the Firm's global capital formation and business development efforts, including the creation of new strategies, new products and strategic initiatives across the KKR platform. She also previously sat on the Firm's Inclusion and Diversity Advisory Committee for a number of years.

Prior to joining KKR, Ms. Wood was with Deutsche Bank's Private Equity Group. She holds a BA from Columbia College and an MBA from Columbia Business School.

Ms. Wood is currently the Vice Chair of the Columbia College Board of Visitors, the Vice Chair of the Convent of the Sacred Heart Board of Trustees, and the Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees of the Public Theater. She also sits on the Columbia Business School Private Equity Board, the Private Equity Women's Investor Network Board and the Nantucket Historical Association Board of Trustees. She was awarded the John Jay Prize by Columbia University in 2019 and was named by the Wall Street Journal as one of the "Women to Watch" in 2020 and by Private Equity International as one of the "Women of Influence in Private Equity" in 2022.

Honor Code

As a lifelong member of the Columbia Business School community, I adhere to the principles of

TRUTH
INTEGRITY & RESPECT.

I will not lie, cheat, steal, or tolerate those who do.

Letter to Alumni

Development and Alumni Relations

Dear Class of 2023,

Congratulations on your graduation and welcome to the Columbia Business School alumni network! On behalf of the Development and Alumni Relations Office, and CBS alumni worldwide, I applaud your fortitude, determination, and accomplishments over the course of your business education. Please keep in mind that, rather than marking the end of your time at Columbia, your recent commencement ceremony has officially kicked off the beginning of your new relationship with the School.

You now belong to a network of more than 50,000 alumni (some of the world's foremost minds in global business, government, and society) in more than 130 countries.

There are limitless opportunities to remain connected to your classmates and to the School. I encourage you to join your local alumni club, attend an upcoming alumni event, sign up to volunteer as an admissions ambassador or Columbia Career Network mentor, and engage with alumni and students on MyCBS. Don't forget to take advantage of your lifelong learning privileges, including course auditing, a free year of access to the Alumni Edge platform, Executive Education tuition benefits, and alumni career services.

Please visit the alumni website for additional information about your alumni benefits and resources, including how to update your lifetime email forwarding address. Stay tuned for the alumni newsletter and make sure to check out the Young Alumni Board for updates and fun events. We also look forward to seeing you back on campus next summer for the Class of 2023's first reunion.

Congratulations again on this great achievement! I can't wait to hear about the impacts you make in your careers and on the lives of others.

Alumni Code

To adhere to the Honor Code principles of truth, integrity, and respect.

To conduct ourselves professionally as ambassadors of the Columbia community.

To respond to outreach from the community in a timely manner.

To advance the community by lending our time, talent, and resources.

To nurture, over the course of our lives, the relationships we've initiated in our years at Columbia.
